

The background of the entire image is a light cream color, scattered with numerous small, irregular pieces of confetti in shades of gold, yellow, and dark blue. The confetti pieces are of various sizes and orientations, creating a festive and celebratory atmosphere.

WELCOME

to

UCDAVIS

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Hi, I'm Zitlalic Zarate, your Academic Advisor

zmmariscalzarate@ucdavis.edu

FUN FACTS

I love nature especially the beach and gardening. I also enjoy all sorts of arts and crafts.

My favorite food is:

Pasta!

I've been working on campus in multiple positions and departments for 4 years. I am a 2022 UCD Alumni!

Welcome to UC Davis. You deserve it! I look forward to helping you succeed as an Aggie! Enjoy your journey 😊

Sproul Hall

Located a short walk from the Quad, Memorial Union, and Shields Library, Sproul Hall is the home of Languages and Literatures where you will find:

- Chinese and Japanese
- Classics, Greek, and Latin
- Comparative Literature
- French and Italian
- German and Russian
- Religious Studies
- Spanish and Portuguese
- Humanities
- Human Rights

The Undergraduate Advising team is located on the second floor

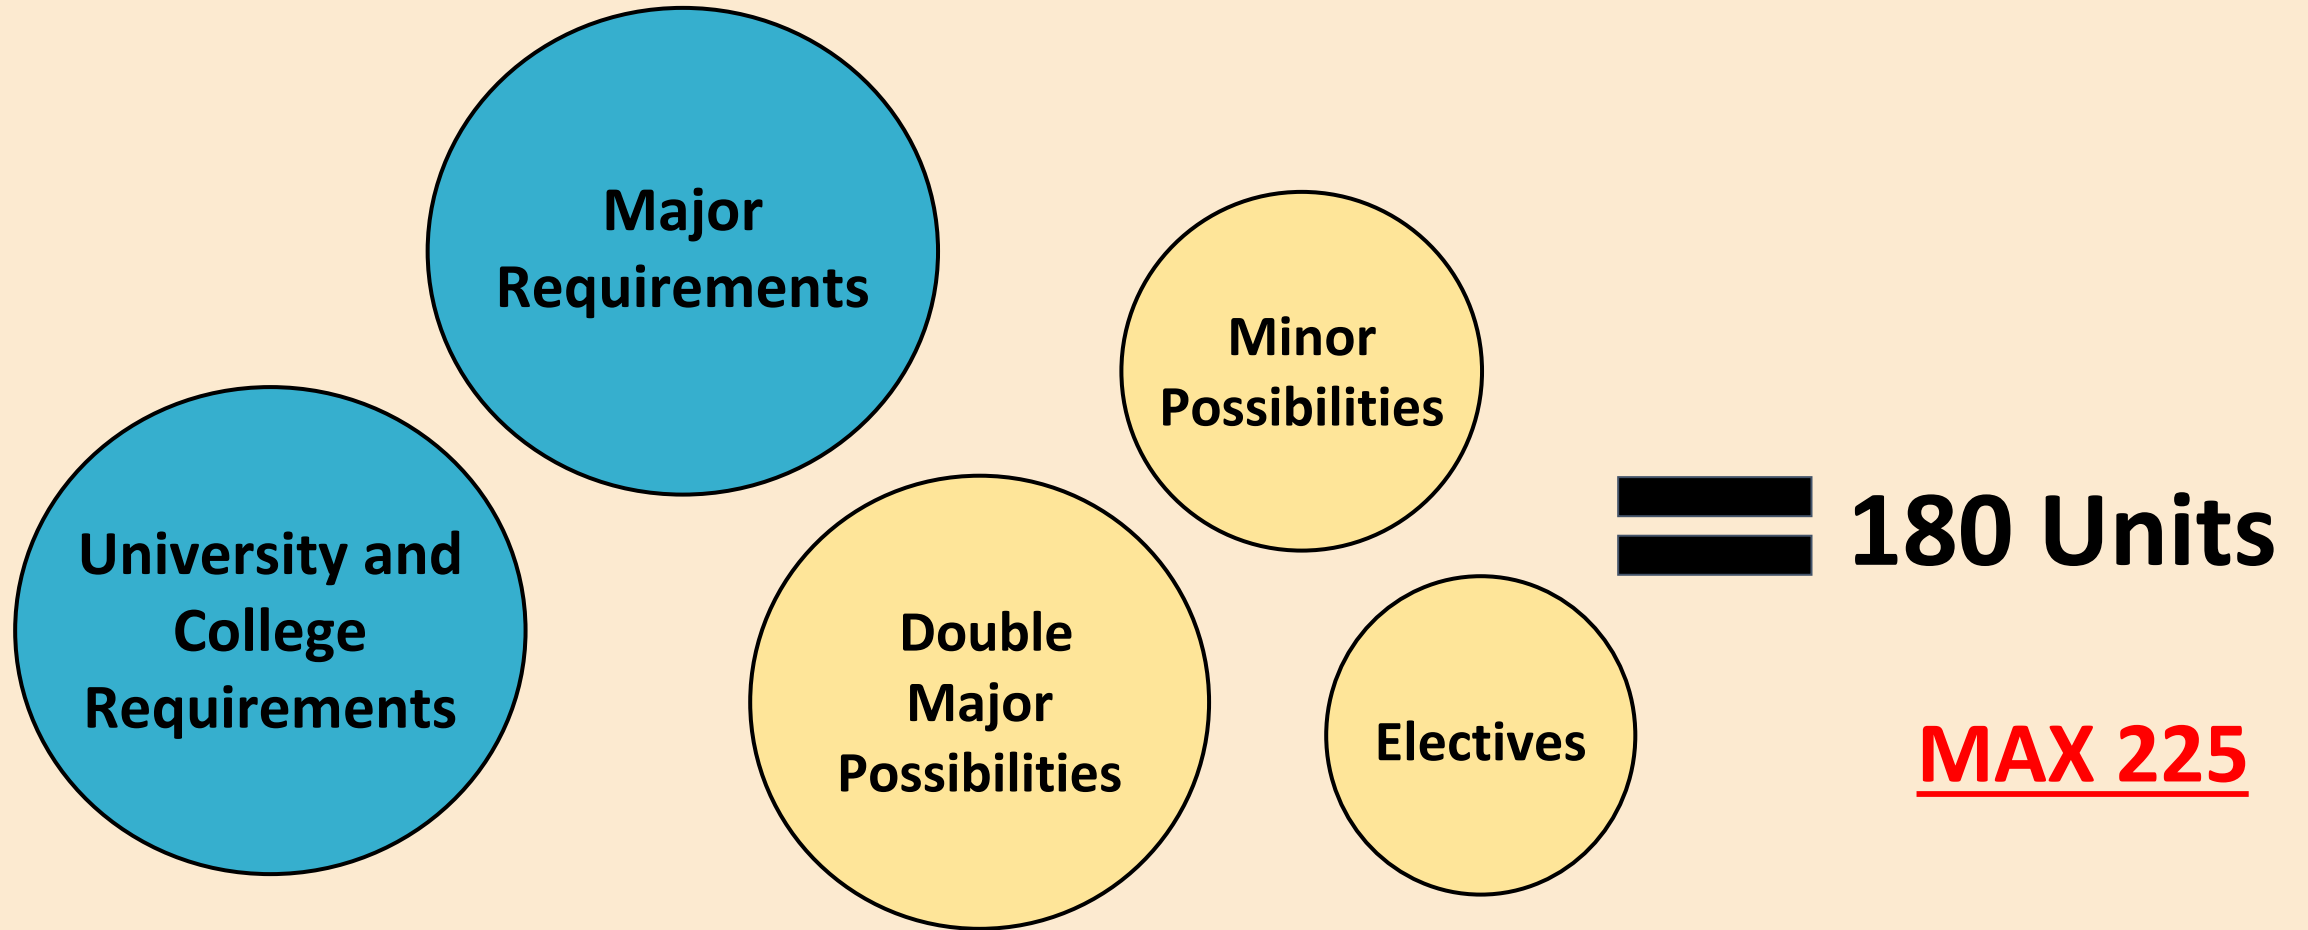

Academic Advising at UC Davis

Advising at UC Davis is decentralized.

- Major Advisors (us!):
 - Major (and minor) requirements & recommendations
 - Help to select major classes (usually 2 per quarter)
 - Minors in our departments
- College Advisors (College of Letters & Science)
 - College and University requirements - e.g. GE & IGETC; upper division and total units; writing requirement; foreign language requirement
 - Permission to drop after the drop deadline

Unit Counts - BIG PICTURE

Helpful Tips

- Lower Division = 0-99
(ex. SPA 021)
- Upper Division = 100-199
(ex. JPN 110)

Check your UC Davis email daily.

Make use of your instructor office hours - they are there to help.

Want to change your major or add a second major?
You need to wait until after your first quarter

It is recommended to take 12-16 units a quarter.
12 units is minimum for full-time status.

Don't know who to contact? Contact us - we will point you in the right direction.

Spanish Major & Minor

Proficiency in all four language skills - speaking, understanding, reading, and writing

- and acquaints students with the intellectual and cultural contributions of the Spanish-speaking world through a study of its language, literature, and cultural traditions.

Spanish Major Degree Requirements

1. Lower division - based on placement (0-33 units)
2. Upper division -
 - 1 course within each area below
 - a. Literature and Culture (SPA 100, 141, 170)
 - b. Spanish Linguistics (SPA 111N, 115, 116)
 - c. Spanish Lit & Culture (SPA 130, 131N, 134A or 142)
 - d. Spanish-American Lit & Culture (SPA 150N, 151, 157, or 159)
 - e. Hispanic Lit & Culture in the U.S. (SPA 117, 174, 176, or 177)
3. ~~Six upper division Spanish electives~~
3. One upper division Spanish elective

Language Placement

For students in the following majors, the Language Proficiency Exam is RECOMMENDED for students who have a background in the language:

- French
- German
- Italian
- Russian
- Spanish

Students who are planning on taking a language course are encouraged to review the Davis Language Center website (ucdlc.ucdavis.edu) and to work with a Language Advisor

WHAT CAN I DO WITH MY MAJOR

Anything and everything! Think this way: transferable skills.

GROWTH MINDSET

PUBLIC SPEAKING

WRITING

TEAMWORK

CRITICAL THINKING

CULTURAL HUMILITY

REMEMBER... MAJOR \neq CAREER

GET INVOLVED:

TUTORING

Language tutoring with other fellow UCD students; all languages have tutoring available in Sproul Hall! Ask if you're not sure!

CLUBS

csi.ucdavis.edu

- French Club
- Italian Club
- German Club
- Spanish Club
- Chinese Club
- Japanese Club
- Just to name a few! See the above link for other campus club...get involved!

A close-up, slightly blurred view of a globe showing a map of Europe and the Mediterranean region. Red arrows are drawn on the map, indicating travel paths from the UK/Ireland area towards the Mediterranean and North Africa. The text 'STUDY ABROAD' is overlaid in large white letters.

STUDY ABROAD

LangLit students can go anywhere in the WORLD!

Global Learning Hub

- Study Abroad and Away for every major;
- Internships, research, and volunteer opportunities on campus, regionally, and across all seven continents;
- Scholarships and funding resources and support;
- Leadership programs, workshops, conferences, seminars, and more.

You can still participate in

GLOBAL LEARNING

even if you don't study abroad!

UC Davis has unique internship opportunities through the UC Sacramento Center and the Washington Program!

uccs.ucdavis.edu

washingtonprogram.ucdavis.edu

Helpful Links

- appointments.ucdavis.edu
 - Make an advising appointment with us!
- langlit.ucdavis.edu
 - Main website for LangLit majors/minors
- students.ucdavis.edu
Online Advising Student Information System (OASIS)
 - Interactive lists of major requirements; Academic Plan tool (can be shared with advisor); Forms & Petitions; GPA tools
- my.ucdavis.edu
 - Main student page - access to multiple resources and you can add links based on what you use the most; Schedule Builder; Student Accounting; Financial Aid

- <https://registrar.ucdavis.edu/>
 - Registrar's office
- <https://financialaid.ucdavis.edu/>
 - Financial Aid Office
- <https://icc.ucdavis.edu/>
 - Internship and Career Center (ICC)
- <https://sdc.ucdavis.edu/>
 - Student Disability Center (SDC)
- <https://shcs.ucdavis.edu/>
 - Student Health and Counseling Services (SHCS)

Internship and Career Center

- The Internship and Career Center is a great place to start a job search for on campus work
- They hold regular workshops during the academic year as well as internship and career fairs
- The advisors offer career advising and document review
- A comprehensive toolkit for resume writing, cover letters, portfolios, and other materials can be found on their website
- Located in South Hall across from the East Quad
- Check out their website: icc.ucdavis.edu

Transportation

Bicycles

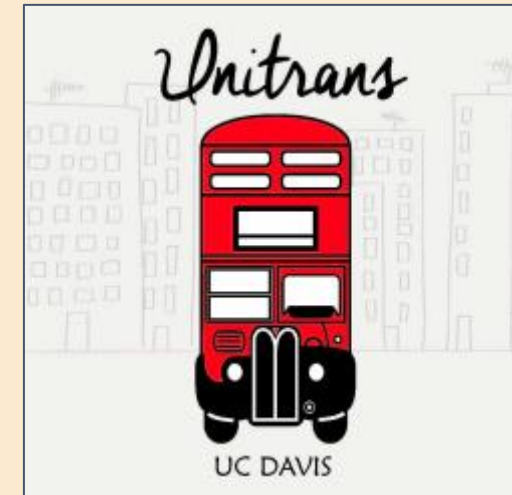

- Davis is a platinum-level bicycle friendly city, both on and off campus
- More than a third of students, faculty, and staff rely on cycling to campus
- A large system of bike paths allows for fast and efficient routes to and from campus
- There are plenty of bike racks around campus
- The Bike Barn, located next to the Silo, offers a full-service repair shop and rental garage
- Please be aware of cycling laws and regulations when

Unitrans

- UC Davis offers an extensive bus system (Unitrans) that can get you around town from 7am-11pm during the week and 9am-6pm on the weekends
- Davis is one of the the only cities in the US to operate double decker busses in regular service, with the first two vintage London busses purchased in 1968
- Undergraduate students with a valid student ID can ride Unitrans and YoloBus (greater Sacramento area) for free

Walking

- Once on campus, there are many walking paths to get to your classes
- There are also several walking loops throughout campus, just look for the white and blue arrows on the ground
- Campus is centrally located in Davis and students can access the downtown area easily by walking from campus

What Makes Davis Special?

- Bike-friendly roads: 98% of Davis streets
- Davis Farmer's Market: open year round, located at Central Park, just off campus. Local produce, meats, baked good, plants, gifts, live music, and so much more. Open Saturdays 8am-1pm and Wednesdays 3pm-6pm
- UC Davis Arboretum: 100+ acres of demonstration gardens, scientific collections, stream and grassland ecosystem managed for teaching, research, wildlife, and habitat protection. Open 24 hours a day, a great place to study between classes, have a picnic with friends, explore the vast array of landscapes, or just sit and relax
- Central to everywhere: Davis is a day trip away from the coast, the mountains, and six national parks

Get out and explore!

Any Questions??

